NINE MEN KILLED IN BREATHITT

Result of Rotten Election
Methods Usual in That County.

Jackson Ky., Nov. 8.—Nine men were shot to death and six wounded in a battle and during sporadic fighting in three precincts of Breathitt county today. Another man was shot and seriously wounded last night as a prelude to today's battling. Two voting places were reported shot up today and ballots destroyed. Telephone lines were cut and voters intimidated.

Eight Killed in Battle.

Eight men were killed and four wounded in a pitched battle inside and about the door of Clayhole Precinct, twelve miles from here on Troublesome creek, as the polls were opened this morning.

The slain are:

Asberry Combs, 26 years old.

Tom Centers, 60.

Cleveland Combs, 25.

Leslie Combs, 25.

Ephrem Allen, 31.

John Roberts, 30.

George Allen, 30.

George McIntosh.

All the slain men were Democratic workers except Roberts and McIntosh, who were Republicans. All were married men with families.

The wounded are:

William Barnett, 50, married, Republican; condition serious.

Will Davis, 30, single, Republican.

Ed Davis, 48, married, Republican.

French Combs, 25, married, Democrat; condition serious.

Tom McIntosh, 25, single, Republican.

The others slain are:

K. K. Spencer, Democrat, election clerk, shot to death late this afternoon at Simpson Precinct, fifteen miles from here on Big Frozen creek.

Sylvester Howard, Jr., 38, slain late yesterday at Spring Fork Precinct, near the Knott county line.

The other wounded is:

Lloyd Napier, 40, Democrat, husband of Democratic candidate for jailer; ambushed on the way to Clayhole Precinct voting place; condition serious.

Battle Breaks Suddenly.

The battle at Clayhole Precinct occurred soon after the polls were opened and some time after the ambushing of Napier. Almost before one could realize that a fight was in progress, scores of shots had been fired and the victims were lying about the polling place, some dead and others dying.

According to one version of the affair, there had been reports last night that the election would be torn up when the polling place was opened this morning. The fact that telephone lines were cut gave strength to the belief that men were organized to carry on a fight.

Ed Combs, defeated candidate for County Judge at the recent primary, who has been supporting the Republican ticket, is said to have led a party of men who appeared at the voting place and demanded a fair election after a voter had been challenged. The battle according to this version, began when, after Combs refused to leave the room and take his followers away from the door, election officers attempted to remove him forcibly.

Woman Takes Part, Report.

Cleveland Combs, election clerk, was the first to fall. A witness to the shooting, who returned to Jackson tonight, said Mrs. Combs, who said she had overheard a group of men plotting a raid on the polling place and who appeared in time to see her husband slain, knocked a pistol from George McIntosh and shot him. She said McIntosh fired the shot which killed her husband, it was reported.

Efforts were made to reopen the polls after the fight, but it was found the ballots had been thrown into the creek and few of them could be used. Few persons were courageous enough to approach the polls after the battle, it was said.

It is believed that the loss of this precinct may swing the county election to the Republicans. The precinct was the stronghold of the Democrats and was considered the key to the outcome of the election in Breathitt.

SANSOM-BIAS WEDDING.

In the presence of only a few relatives and friends, the wedding of Miss Zuma Sansom, the attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Sansom of Wayne and Mrs. A. A. Bias, was quietly solemnized in the M. E. Parsonage at Portsmouth, O., a few days ago, says the Wayne News. The Rev. Chas. Edward Chandler performed the ring ceremony in the most impressive manner. Mr. Bias is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Bias of near Dunlow and is a telegraph operator at Glenhayes. The bride is a teacher in Wayne county. After an extended tour to Washington, Boston and other points in the east the couple will be at home at Glenhayes, W. Va. Mr. Bias met Miss Sansom while acting as relief agent at Wayne.

DUNLOW HOUSE BURNS.

The residence of Wayne Meade, Jr., of Dunlow was destroyed by fire Monday afternoon. The residence formerly occupied by J. H. Meek, is the largest building in Dunlow and was a well-built and beautiful structure. Wayne News.

The Mayo Trail Will Contract Another Section

Now that Congress has made another appropriation for aid to roads it is said that the next section of the Mayo Trail, from Louisa to the Johnson county line, will be advertised to let in January.

ANOTHER ADVANCE IN OIL EXPECTED

Another advance in the price of Somerset is looked for by oil men within a short time. Already a premium of ten to fifteen cents on the barrel is being offered by some of the independent buyers, and it begins to look as though the advance should come sooner than was expected. It was maintained all along that crude would go to three dollars by the end of the year, if the rate of increase was kept up, and the indications are that before the end of the present week, a further stimulation in the price will come. Independent.

CITY COUNCIL MEETING.

The regular meeting of the city council was adjourned from Tuesday night to Wednesday night.

Barney Wellman was employed to keep the paved streets clean.

It being the time for laying the levy for next year, the rate was fixed at 50¢ for general purposes and 25¢ for bonds, the same as this year.

After some routine business the council adjourned to November 22.

FEDERAL AID FOR KENTUCKY ROADS

Robson Bill Finally Passed By Congress Makes Money Available

The Federal aid road bill as agreed upon by the conference committee of the two houses of Congress has been passed and signed by the President.

Kentucky is entitled to $472,393 immediately, out of a total of $1,417,178, and West Virginia may have $802,360, of which $267,453 may be taken now.

In making public these allotments the department estimated that the employment of from 300,000 to 350,000 men in road building thus was made possible.

The Public Roads Bureau pointed out that, while each state had to match the Federal apportionment, the effect on the unemployment situation need not be delayed for legislative action by states.

The allotments are based upon the present mileage of the states in relation to their population and acreage.

DEMOCRATS WIN IN KENTUCKY

Huge Democratic gains were scored throughout Kentucky in judicial, legislative and county races Tuesday. County after county which had not elected Democratic officials to any office for a score of years, elected all their Democratic nominees.

Both proposed amendments to the State Constitution, affecting the manner of choosing the State Superintendent of Public Instruction and the appointment of the State school fund seemed to have been decisively beaten.

Louisville remains in the Republican column by a much reduced majority. At the same time the Democrats gained four members of the Legislature from Louisville.

Greenup County Democratic.

Every Democratic candidate in Greenup county was elected. They are as follows:

Representative, C. C. Oney.
Circuit Clerk, C. F. Spencer.
County Judge, L. E. Nichols.
County Attorney, Glen Miller, Republican. No opposition.

County Clerk, J. B. Bates.
Sheriff, Vernon Callahan.

Jailer, E. P. Eastham.

Tax Commission, L. Spurhill, Republican. No opposition.

FALL MOVING TIME.

C. D. Duke and wife have moved to the Sam Barram property on the Point. J. E. Kiser and family have also moved to their new house on the Point.

L. E. Cooksey and family moved from Pocahontas street to the house on Lock avenue vacated by H. H. Queen and family who are occupying their handsome new residence on the Yates place on Lock avenue.

MARRIAGE LICENSES.

Robert Green, 24, to Zora Rose, 21, of Davisville.

Floyd King, 28, of Staffordsville to Julia Burton, 15, of Wilbur.

Ben McCoy, 22, of Louisa, to Eddie Holley, 19, of Woodman.

Dewey Day, 25, to Florence Griffith, 25, of Lower Elk.

FERGUSON-WELLMAN.

Mrs. Manlie Wellman of Fort Gay, W. Va., announces the marriage of her daughter, Nancy Sue Wellman to Lindsey Gordon Ferguson, on October 29, 1921, at the residence of Rev. S. F. Reynolds of Louisa.

Their many friends wish them a long, happy and prosperous life.

DEEP TEST WELL IN MAGOFFIN ABANDONED

The Bedrock Oil Company has been forced to abandon a test well in Magoffin county at a depth of 3855 feet. The tools were stuck in the well and all efforts to extricate them failed. The well was started last March. Nothing of value was found in the way of oil deposits. The well is on Jack Whitaker's place.

LETCHER COUNTY.

The strong Republican county of

Letcher elected a Democratic county

Judge and circuit clerk and gave Judge

Childers a 500 majority. Mrs. Whitaker came within 80 votes of beating the Republican candidate for Sheriff.

FOCH AT TOMB OF WASHINGTON

It was an inspiring moment for those permitted to be present, when Marshal Foch, commander-in-chief of all allied armies, visited the tomb of Washington on his second day in America. The great French hero placed a wreath in tribute to the genius of Washington. Foch's arrival in America for the American Legion convention at Kansas City and attendance at the Armament conference in Washington, marked the start of the most enthusiastic reception ever accorded a foreign visitor. All the way across the continent, Marshal Foch and General Pershing were met by record crowds, who cheered until Foch himself was often moved to tears of appreciation.

DEWEY MOORE

Is he dead? No, there is no death. The stars go down to rise up on some fairer shore. Our loved ones have been promoted to nobler sphere and they are more alive now than they were with us. Only a few short weeks ago he was in our midst, full of life and joyous expression, like sunshine in a world of darkness, but a passing cloud cast the dark shadow between him and us and the light was eclipsed on this side of the scene, but not on the other. The mists that becloud our vision here will evolve into stars of brightest light over there.

Dewey Moore was born in Floyd county and moved to this place when a small boy. While he had not been a Christian up to the time of his illness, yet he was a quiet amiable, obedient young man. Dewey had a very severe attack of flu, developing into tuberculosis, finally ending his earthly career. He bore his suffering patiently. Not one time did he murmur or complain, but seemed to trust all to the Lord and openly declared that he was the only one that could help him. He told his friends around him he was ready to go and only awaited the summons.

Dewey thought there was no one like mother, and he said a few days before he died, "mother, don't weep for me for I'm prepared to die." Dewey was loved by all who knew him.

He leaves to mourn their loss a mother and six sisters and three brothers. A father and two brothers and two sisters had already preceded him to the glory land. Dewey was a member of the I. O. O. F. of Buchanan. The brothers took charge of the casket from the home and brought to Mt. Zion cemetery and laid beside his brother, Fred. No more waiting for his return, but prepare to meet him.

CAN'T DO THE WORK

It's too much to try to work every day against a constant, dull backache, or sudden darting pain in the small of the back. Be rid of it. Try Doan's Kidney Pills. Your neighbors recommend them. Ask your neighbor.

Jack Blankenship, foreman Construction Co., Plumb St., Louisa, says: "I have had the best of results through the use of Doan's Kidney Pills and can't recommend them too highly. I have a lot of exposure while on duty as foreman of a construction company and hoisting engines, together with the jarring, is what had a tendency to bring on my kidney trouble. There were times I had to give up work and go home and stay there, as I was just down with my back. Sharp, shooting pains darted all through my back and kidneys and the kidney secretions passed irregularly, containing a sandy sediment. I was in bad shape generally until I went to the Louisa Drug Store Co., and got three boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills. I began using this medicine and soon got over the trouble. Doan's fixed me up in good shape and I have never been bothered since."

Instead of lamenting and grumbling about the illicit liquor traffic the people who voted it out should be active in having the laws enforced. Also, they should help to secure the enactment of laws to cure the defects that have been found in the statutes after the numerous tests that have been made. Decisions of the higher courts annul many laws and change many others so as to leave them ineffectual. Let not the law-loving citizens give up the fight or lag in their duty. The big battle has been won but there are smaller ones on hands and ahead of us to complete the victory. Let all "dry" men and women assert themselves and the traffic will be stamped out. Public sentiment can suppress any movement or any set of outlaws.

He Found Buying
At Home Was The Best After All!

J. M. Bright, a garage man and automobile tire dealer of Keyser, W. Va., tells a pretty interesting little story which he calls "An Example of Retail Mail Order Dealing." Bright's story should be interesting to Wayne county merchants and the buying public also. It's this:

Down in a certain town the other day a man went into a store to buy an automobile tube. He saw the kind he wanted and asked the price. It was $3.25, the dealer said.

"Good gracious," said the man, "I can get the same thing from a mail-order house for $2.82."

"That's less than it costs me," said the dealer, "but I'll sell it on the same terms as the mail-order house just the same."

"Alright," said the customer, "You can send it along and charge it to my account."

"Not on your life," the dealer replied. "No charge accounts. You can't do business with the mail-order house that way. Fork over the cash."

The customer handed over the cash. "Now two cents for postage and five cents for the money order."

"What?"

"Certainly you have to send a letter and a money order to the mail-order house, you know."

The customer, inwardly raving, kept to his agreement and paid the seven cents.

"Now thirty-five cents expressage."

"Well, I'll be," he said, but paid it saying: "Now hand me that tube and I'll take it home for myself and be rid of this foolery."

"Hand it to you? Where do you think you are? You're not in Chicago, and you'll have to wait a week for that tube."

Whereupon he placed the tube on the shelf and put the money in his cash drawer.

"That makes $3.25, he said. "It has cost you six cents more and taken you a week longer to get it than if you had paid my price in the first place."

Hiram Fuller
Dies In Ceredo

Hiram Fuller a pioneer and respected citizen of this community, died of pneumonia at his home in the southern part of Ceredo on Tuesday of last week. He was 82 years of age and was only ill about a week.

Mr. Fuller was a civil war veteran and served his country in the Union Army. He was a member of the Valley Post, G. A. R., at Huntington and a number of the post members attended his funeral.

Funeral services were conducted by Rev. B. S. Akers, assisted by Rev. J. T. Pope, in the Baptist church Thursday afternoon, after which the body was buried in Brown's Hill cemetery.

Born in Pike county, Ky., Mr. Fuller came to Wayne county in early life and had resided here ever since. He was twice married and the following children all from his first union, survive: Oliver, Thomas J. and John W. Fuller, all of whom reside in this community and two daughters, Mrs. Ellinora Rees of Andover, Va., and Mrs. Rebecca Newman of Cincinnati, and his widow—Ceredo Advance.

MISS BENNIE ALLEY AND
MR. JAMES FUGATE MARRY

Saturday afternoon, Nov. 5, 1921, Miss Bennie Alley, the lovely daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Alley and Mr. James Fugate were united in marriage by the Rev. S. F. Reynolds. Those witnessing the ceremony were Miss Cosby Alley, a sister of the bride and Miss Eliza Ranson.

Mrs. Fugate was beautifully dressed in a becoming brown suit. She is well known in this country having been for the past few years one of our most successful teachers. She was graduated from the Business Department of college in the class of 1920. She is greatly admired by all who know her.

Mr. Fugate is an industrious young man and is very highly respected. He has just recently returned from Logan, W. Va., where he has employment.

This is a very deserving young couple and the people of our community extend to them hearty congratulations and good wishes for a long and happy life.

THIS IS ARMISTICE DAY.

Today, Friday, November 11, is Armistice Day.

It is a legal holiday and will be observed by banks and many other institutions. It celebrates the end of the awful World war, three years ago.

The Fatal "Valuation" of New Tariff Bill

The "American valuation" provision of the Fordney tariff is obnoxious because it is a subterfuge. It is an effort to conceal an increase of duties. If Mr. Fordney wishes to make a duty 100 per cent instead of 50, let him put it in plain figures instead of making the duty 50 per cent and doubling the sum on which it is to be computed.

It is obnoxious because it will increase duties beyond all reason and justification. The increased duties will increase the cost of living and will exclude imports. This will cut off revenue and restriction of imports will in turn restrict exports. Exports are absolutely necessary to keep our factories busy, and foreigners cannot buy of us unless they can sell to us.

It is obnoxious because the basis cannot be established with any accuracy. Domestic prices vary from time to time and in different localities. The Custom House will have to tabulate a great many prices and get at an average, and an average must be wrong at many times and places.

It is obnoxious because the importer cannot tell what duty he will have to pay, and until he knows that he cannot fix his selling prices. The invoice shows what he paid for his foreign goods. If that differs materially from the prices in the open market it is not difficult to ascertain the fact. The importer knows the penalties for undervaluation, and unless he is deliberately trying to cheat the Government he avoids it. Under the "American valuation" plan he cannot know what the duty will be until he has entered the goods at the Custom House and the appraisers have decided in their own way what the value of the goods here is.

It is obnoxious because the duty is progressive. The duty added to the foreign article becomes a new domestic price, and the 40 per cent or 100 per cent or whatever it may be, becomes a new basis for the imposition of the duty.

Take a foreign article worth $1 and subject to a duty of 50 per cent. That makes the cost, duty paid, $1.50. If the tariff is as nicely adjusted as it purports to be, we may assume that the approximate American valuation is $1.50. But if the duty is 50 per cent on that it amounts to 75 per cent, and the price, duty paid, is $2.25. The manufacturers will take advantage of the duty to mark their prices up to $2.25. This, then, is new American valuation and the next importation will be assessed at $3.37 1/2. This makes a new American valuation on which another 50 per cent will be assessed, and the price could go on indefinitely if people bought the goods. As a matter of fact, people could not buy them. The Government would lose the revenue, the foreigner could not sell in this market, and his country's ability to buy in this country would be curtailed.

Our exports of fully manufactured goods, ready to enter into consumption, are three and a half times as great as our imports of manufactured goods. It is of vast importance to our producers, farmers and manufacturers to save our export trade.

Notice to Club Members and Future Campers

November 12 to 19 has been designated as Junior Club Enrollment Week for the State of Kentucky.

So boys and girls between ages of 10 and 18 get busy and get your name in to your County Agent during that week or soon afterwards, so you may be able to attend the big club camp to be held next summer in this county. You will remember that this year any boy or girl was allowed to attend, but next year you must be a club member. Now you can join the club without buying a pig, or being out any expense, you can enroll to grow some crop; chickens or some other animal that you have at home or some other crop, such as corn, tomatoes, melons or most any crop you prefer, but you must join the club and do the work under the supervision of your County Agent. He will be glad to help you and to have you in the club and he wants you to attend the big club camp next year. So write your County Agent a letter and ask for an application card. Remember any boy or girl between 10 and 18, inclusive, of both ages are eligible and you must join before you can attend the camp. We can have a camp of our own county if we can guarantee 200 members will be there. Get busy and let's make it 300 strong.

Yours for a camp in 1922.

G. C. BAKER, County Agent.

Dr. J. F. York Died
in Cincinnati Friday

Dr. James F. York, 55 years old, Kovina, W. Va., died Friday at a Cincinnati hotel following an illness which extended over five weeks. He was widely acquainted throughout West Virginia, and for 10 years was Mayor of Kovina. He had been engaged in the oil business in the last few years.

Dr. York's fatal illness was contracted in the oil fields at Scottsville, Ky. Immediately after becoming ill Dr. York went to Cincinnati in an attempt to regain his health.

Dr. York was known among a number of Cincinnati professional men, as he was graduated from the Electric Medical College in the class of 1895.

He was a member of B. P. O. E. No. 113, Huntington, W. Va.; Kovina Lodge, A. F. & A. M. No. 110, Royal Arch Masons No. 6, and Beni Kedem Temple, Nobles of the Mystic Shrine, at Charleston, W. Va. He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Dora York, and a son, John Y. York, who is a First Lieutenant in the United States Air Service stationed at Ross Field, Arcadia, Cal. Both were at Dr. York's bedside at the time of his death.

The body was forwarded to Huntington, W. Va., for burial.

Magoffin Is Second
In Oil Output Value

Frankfort—Magoffin county in the new Eastern Kentucky field, though fourth in production, ranks second in the value of its oil produced in September. Warren county, second in production, is fourth in the value of its oil.

The total production of oil in the State for September was 719,695 barrels, compared to 803,083 in August, but the value in September was $1,048,630 while the value of the August production was $870,865, showing the effect of the increased price of oil.

The State received 10,486 tax on the production. Lee county led with 328,821 barrels, valued at $470,320. Warren came next with 98,141 barrels, valued at $101,519. Estill was third with 69,152 barrels, valued at $109,390, and Magoffin fourth with 65,860 barrels, valued at $117,505.

Moonshine Causes
Another Murder

James Turner is held in the Catlettsburg jail charged with the murder of Arthur Lakes, of that city, whose body was found floating down the Ohio river in a skiff near Greenup Sunday. From what can be learned, Lakes, who is tender at the lock at Catlettsburg, went to Turner's boat in company with his brother to get some moonshine, which Turner made. A fight started, and the brother ran, and during the fight Lakes was killed and his body placed in a skiff and put out in the river.

Officers went to the scene and brought the boats to this city as they were on this side of the river. The still, which was still warm when found by the officers, is the largest ever captured in this county. — Ironton News.

Nation Faces Oil and Gas
Famine, Says Year's Survey

Chicago.—A report was made by the gas and oil committee of the American Gas Association at the annual convention of the organization said that the United States will face an oil famine which will restrict the use of automobiles and increase the cost of gasoline unless immediate steps are taken to increase the supply. The committee had made a year's survey of the oil situation.

The report declared that a duty on petroleum would curtail shipments from Mexico and greatly aggravate the situation.

CHICKEN BREEDING IN KENTUCKY INCREASING

Washington.—The number of chickens in Kentucky increased 2,477,141 between the 1910 and the 1920 census, according to figures announced, which show that Kentucky ranks fifteenth among the States in chicken breeding. The total number of chickens in Kentucky in 1920 was 10,477,598, compared with 8,000,457 in 1910.

Ducks and guinea fowls in Kentucky also increased during the decade. The number of ducks increased from 93,706 to 99,577, while the number of guinea fowls increased from 46,721 to 74,698.

Trukeys, geese and pigeons in Kentucky, on the other hand, decreased. The number of turkeys declined from 188,292 in 1910 to 168,326 in 1920; geese from 399,632 to 177,420, and pigeons from 29,613 to 22,612.

Johnson County
People Injured in Auto Accident

Seymour, Ind., Nov. 3.—John Knight, 26 years old, and John Corbett, 28, were probably fatally injured and Miss Florence A. Hobbs, 26, suffered severe injuries when their automobile was struck by a train here this afternoon. The victims live at Flanery, Johnson county, Ky., and were on their way to Indianapolis.

Knight and Corbett were pinned under the car and rendered unconscious. Knight's scalp was almost torn from his head. Both men are believed to have received internal injuries. Miss Hobbs was cut about the head and face, and one leg was injured.

They were removed to a hospital here.

FLOYD COUNTY GAS
COMPANY'S INJUNCTION SUIT

Frankfort, Ky.—Judge Flem D. Sampson, Court of Appeals, heard the motion of the Midas Gas Company to dissolve an injunction given the Louisville Gas & Electric Company by the Floyd Circuit Court to permit the Louisville Gas & Electric Company to connect with the Midas Company's well in Floyd county. Pending in the Floyd Circuit Court is a suit for damages brought by the Midas Company against the Louisville Gas & Electric, growing out of the same state of facts.

Lafayette F. Bowe
of Wayne is Dead

Lafayette F. Bowe, 68, a member of one of the oldest families in Wayne county, died Tuesday evening at seven o'clock, after two operations. Friday and Sunday in a vain effort to prolong his life. He had been ill for some time of a complication of diseases.

The late Mr. Bowe was listed among the pioneers of the county. In his prime he was active as a timberman and in later years dwelt on his farm near Camden park. He was born at Fort Gay. The widow, Mrs. Sarah Bowe, and eight children survive him.

The children are: Jay Bowe, of Huntington; Grover C. Bowe, and Mrs. Ella Jackson, of Wayne; Mrs. Lola Nye, of Williamson; Frank Bowe of Detroit; Ollie Bowe and Mrs. Mamie Lyons, and James H. Bowe, of Westmoreland.

A lifelong member of the Christian church, Mr. Bowe was held in high esteem, for his excellent character, and many acts of kindness and neighborliness.

The funeral was held Thursday afternoon at two o'clock at the residence.

DO IT FOR YOUR OWN SAKE, FOLKS!

We have with us in this community many valued citizens whose home towns are in other parts of the country.

Circumstances that are our good fortune as much as theirs, have made it to their interests to settle there. They have established homes and built for themselves many warm friendships.

But the "old home," the home of childhood, is somewhere else. Oft must come to them fond recollections that go back to the home of their girlhood and their boyhood days: back to the people there whom they knew and loved; back to the scenes that were so familiar and will always remain intimate until the last call arrives to still another home.

It is no reflection on a man or woman that his or her heart retains a place for the old home town and that he sometimes dreams of it. Sentimental? Certainly, but such a sentiment is good and wholesome and is the mark of a human heart that can be trusted—and loved.

To these of our fellow citizens we address this suggestion: That they take advantage of the idea behind the "Subscribe to the Home Paper" week, in order that, during the coming year, they shall receive regularly each week their old home newspaper and see the names and hear of the people they used to know in the happy old days when they lived in the good old home.

You know the paper's name, fellow citizen! Send on your subscription!

NEIGHBORS

When a feller loves his neighbor, like the ten commandments means, it lifts up common people to the stage of kings an' queens; there's music floatin' everywhere, on every balmy breeze, an' the harmony is echoed by the robins in the trees.

The devil never camps around a lovin' neighborhood, an' there ain't no "latest gossip" to pizen people's blood, but there's borrowin' an' lendin' with a willin' heart an' hand, an' a wholesome lendin' spirit that the children understand.

I never liked to be afraid of trampin' some owes toes, nor to see a skyward angle onto Mrs. Henpeck's nose,—an' the time when I was sickest, which it lasted mornin' a week, was when I jawed at Bilkins, an' neither wouldn't speak.

There's lots of sorry pastime that associates with gall, but fussin' with a neighbor is the sorriest of 'em all.

$10,000,000 AID FOR VETERANS

Red Cross Provides Friendly Service of Many Kinds to Army of Disabled.

BULK OF WORK BY CHAPTERS

2,397 of These Are Helping Ex-Service Men Obtain Benefits U. S. Provides.

One field of Red Cross service alone, that of assisting disabled veterans of the World War, entails expenditures $4,000,000 greater than the aggregate receipts of the Annual Roll Call of 1920, the American Red Cross announces in a statement urging a widespread increase in membership at the Annual Roll Call, November 11 to 24. At the present time National Headquarters and the nation-wide chain of Chapters of the Red Cross is spending approximately $10,000,000 annually for the relief of disabled ex-service men and their families, while the aggregate receipts from last year's Roll Call were approximately $6,000,000.

It is in the 2,289 of the 3,600 Red Cross Chapters which still are helping solve the veteran's problem of adjusting himself to a normal civilian status that the greater part of the cost of this service is borne. Of the total sum spent for veterans' relief last year, National Headquarters expended a total of more than $2,600,000, while the remaining disbursement of approximately $7,000,000 represents the contribution of Chapters in this country-wide effort to assist the Government in providing the aid sorely needed by these men and their families.

An Ever Expanding Problem

That the problem of the disabled service man is ever-expanding and probably will not reach the peak before 1925, is the assertion of well-informed Government officials and that 2,397 Red Cross Chapters regard it as their most important work is evidence that the expansion is in nowise confined to a particular section but is, on the contrary, nation-wide. At the end of the fiscal year, June 30, 1921, there were 26,300 disabled service men in the 1,092 United States Public Health Service, Contract and Government Hospitals and Soldiers' Homes, and that number is increasing at a rate of 1,000 a month.

Thousands of these men receiving medical treatment, compensation and vocational training from the Government today, started their efforts to obtain them through the Red Cross Chapter. The Chapter, acting as the disabled man's agent in claims against the Government, informs the man as to the procedure necessary to gain for him that which is provided him by Federal statute. His applications for compensation, medical treatment and training are properly filed with the aid of the Red Cross Chapter.

Many Forms of Assistance

If there is delay before the man's claim is acted upon, the Red Cross Chapter lends the man money to meet the imperative needs of himself and his dependents.

Most vital to the man's gaining full benefit from the Government's care is keeping his mind free from worry about his home. Keeping the veteran's family from hardship of every kind and informing him of its welfare is another province of the Chapter. Free from fear on this score, the man's recovery and advancement usually is rapid.

Every month during the last year, the American Red Cross has given service of one kind or another to an average of 120,215 former service men and their families. An indication of the extent of the faith reposed in the Red Cross Chapter is to be found in the fact that there were 356,544 requests for friendly aid in the solution of personal problems.

448 Workers in Hospitals

While the man prior to entering Government care deals largely with the Chapter, afterward he comes into contact with the service provided by National Headquarters. There are 448 Red Cross workers in the United States Public Health Service and contract hospitals and other institutions in which these men are being cared for, whose duty is to provide for his recreation, help him with his compensation claims, keep him in touch with his family; in short, meeting his every need outside of that provided by the Government. While these are a few of the responsibilities of the National Organization, they are by no means all. Among other Red Cross accomplishments for the year are:

It handled 70,732 allotment and allowances claims.

It delivered through its Chapter organization 63,655 allotment checks to veterans who had moved from the addresses furnished to the Bureau of War Risk Insurance.

It provided a special fund of $10,000 for medical assistance to men under vocational training.

It made $2,495 loans totaling $450,000 to men taking vocational training, of which 85 per cent has been repaid.

REQUIRES BRAINS.

A certain Englishman, famous for his erudition, played such a wretched game on the links that he remarked one day to his caddie, "How is it that I, a man acquainted with the arts and sciences, cannot play this confounded game of golf?"

"Weel," said the caddie, "it's like as ye ken a' about they sma' affairs, an' wi' things connectit wi' them, but ye maun understand that it tak's a heid to play gowf."

Some Relief.

Flatbush—So you threw your alarm clock out of the window at a howling cat last night, did you?

Bensonhurst—I certainly did.

"Why, say, you wouldn't hit a cat in a thousand years!"

"I know it; but I felt very certain that I would get rid of one of the nuisances, anyway!"

Interest Secure.

"I don't believe Josh is interested in the dear old home," remarked Farmer Cortossoff sadly.

"Yes, he is," replied Josh's mother, "but he's goin' to keep on bein' interested regardless of pleasures and palaces, so long as the old home is the only place where three meals per day are absolutely reliable."

WISE GUY

"Jack's the most bashful man I ever saw. He never tried to kiss me once when he called last week."

"That's not bashfulness. That's fear. I told him you'd push a man's face in if they'd try anything like that."

The Apple of His Eye.

A peach came walking down the street; She was more than passing fair; A smile, a nod, a half-closed eye, And the peach became a pair.

—Cornell Widow.

Taking a Sporting Chance.

"We are going at a frightful rate of speed, conductor."

"Only 60 miles an hour, ma'am."

"But isn't that too fast for safety?"

"It depends on the point of view, ma'am. If we don't get to Hawkins' Junction before the limited does, we won't get there at all."

The Sporting Instinct.

The waiter in a railway buffet came to the table where a passenger was seated.

"Tea or coffee, sir?" he asked.

"Don't tell me," begged the passenger, earnestly, "don't tell me, just let me guess."

In Fact, Snappy Stories.

Wrightman—Well, I've just signed a contract with the editor of Pudley's Magazine.

His Wife—Selling stories?

"Er—yes; I'm to think up excuses for the editor so that he can stay out late at night."

Delay Appreciated.

Mrs. Klack—Really, I am ashamed of myself for not calling before, but I put it off until it seemed as if I should never call.

Mrs. Knox—Oh, pray, don't mention it. Very kind of you, I'm sure.

Mean.

"Ma, teacher's awful mean."

"Hush, my son, you mustn't say that."

"Well, she is! What do you think? She borrowed my knife to sharpen a pencil to give me a bad mark."

THE BATTLE'S ON

Jack: Say! Waddayuh doln' with a trombone? Gonna take lessons?

Jill: Nopel I am buyin' this trombone in self-defense.

Jack: A trombone in self-defense?

Jill: Yea! Yuh see the neighbors in the next apartment to us have just bought a player piano.

Color Not Important.

We'd be a blonde or deep brunette; We really don't care which, So long as we're not sick abed, And reasonably rich.

Would Look Better.

Automobile Salesman—Want your monogram or initials on the car?

Buyer (smilingly)—As my name happens to be Isaac O. Uxbridge, better make it the monogram.

Signs of Decay.

Bix—Noodle says he is the last action of an ancient but decayed family.

Dix—That's probably why everything he says is such awful rot.

Her Prerogative.

Heck—Have you decided what you are going to call the baby, old man?

Pek—Yes; I'm going to call him whatever my wife names him.

Take Your Choice of Poisons.

Thirty-two new poisons were discovered during the great war in munition experiments in the United States alone.

BLONDE AND BRUNETTE.

MISSING AN OPPORTUNITY.

There is often fun at the baseball grounds outside of the game, especially among the boys who try to see the game without being admitted.

One youngster who was fortunate enough to find a knothole in the fence was heard to shout to another who was munching away on a juicy apple:

"Say, I'll quit this hole if you'll give me a couple o' them."

"Go on!" was the reply. "Yer can't see through the ginks on t'other side o' the fence."

"Orli right, sonny," was the rejoinder, "keep 'em. But that's where you missed it, for there's a sawed-off guy in front of this hole, and there ain't nobody in front of him. See?"

Why He Picked Pictish.

An English mother was visiting her son at college.

"Well, dear," she said, "what languages have you decided to take?"

"I have decided to take Pictish, mother," he replied.

"Pictish?" said the puzzled lady.

"Why Pictish?"

"Only five words of it remain," he said.

WHERE THE MONEY IS

First Kid: I b'lieve I wanna own a movin' picture theatre when I grow up Slim. They're sure makin' money outta the movies these days.

Second Kid: Why I jen heard my father say yesterdat that they was makin' plenty of money out "stills" too.

A Financier's Experiment.

His system felt a chilling shock.

That troubled his repose.

He put some water in the stock,

And then the water froze.

PAINTSVILLE

Birthday Party.

Miss Dorothy Geiger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Geiger, celebrated her thirteenth birthday Monday. A number of her friends were invited to help celebrate the occasion. She received many beautiful presents. Games and other amusements were engaged in after which an excellent birthday dinner was served.

Kicked By Mule; Killed.

Bascom Castle, who was kicked by a mule last Tuesday at Thealika, died at the Paintsville hospital Wednesday night at 12 o'clock. The body was removed to the Paintsville Furniture Co., where it was prepared for burial. The funeral services were held at Mingo. Burial took place at the old home cemetery, near the church. He leaves a wife and six children, and also two brothers.

Bootleggers Arrested.

Van Lear officers arrested three bootleggers last Saturday night and brought them to Paintsville jail. They were from Knott county and had a large supply of booze.

Paintsville officers arrested four men with moonshine in their possession late Saturday night.

Monday Police Chief Walters emptied several gallons of moonshine in the sewer on Court street.

Strict enforcement of the law is the only thing that will rid the county of moonshine and bootleggers. Herald.

PIKEVILLE

Local and Personal.

Miss Julia Virginia Hatcher gave a Hallowe'en party for the members of Mrs. Shuttife's expression class Saturday afternoon. The rooms were artistically decorated in black and orange, witches and jack o'lanterns predominating. A number of readings were given during the afternoon.

Newby-Ramsey.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Clem of Lexington and Hazard, announce the engagement of their niece Nancy E. Newby, to Mr. John C. Ramsey of Pikeville. The wedding will take place in Lexington the last of November.

Moore-Hellier.

A wedding of unusual interest took place in Newport, Ky., last Wednesday when Mrs. Lida E. Hellier and Mr. J. Moore, both of this city were united in marriage. Mrs. Moore was formerly Miss Lida Hatcher and is daughter of John Hatcher of this city, and one of our most charming and accomplished matrons. Mr. Moore is one of the most prominent lawyers of Eastern Kentucky. Mr. and Mrs. Moore returned to Pikeville Saturday night, and will make their home here.

Struck By Truck.

Little Harry Douglas Coleman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lou Coleman, South Pikeville, was struck by an auto truck driven by Charles Sowards early Tuesday and seriously injured. The child was on its way to school and had started to cross the street in front of the building to enter the college grounds. The truck was being driven down grade and Mr. Sowards, it is said, did all he could to avoid the accident. He swerved his car into the curb but not until after the accident had happened.

The child was cut about the chin and face and bruised about the chest and limbs. He was given prompt medical attention, but remained unconscious for a considerable time after the accident. Pike County News.

WEAK BLOOD IS A REAL BARRIER

Growing Children Often Need Gude's Pepto-Mangan.

Some children grow too quickly—it saps their strength. They lapse into carelessness, desultory habits, or develop a shrinking attitude. Their faces look pinched.

The blood becomes overtaxed by too rapid growth; and poisons from the system take the place of strength-giving red corpuscles in the blood. Red corpuscles are those little red particles that swim in blood and give it its color. Gradually that child loses interest in its play.

Poor blood needs the building that the iron in Gude's Pepto-Mangan gives to weakened blood. Gude's Pepto-Mangan enriches the blood by increasing the number of red corpuscles, and restores the blood by driving out the poisons. When the revived blood gets to work, the appetite becomes what a growing child's should be. Your druggist has Gude's Pepto-Mangan in liquid or tablet form. The name "Gude's Pepto-Mangan" is on every package. Advertisement.

The Haunted House

By FREDERICK HART

"Phaw! There's no such thing as a ghost!" Cordelia Davis' voice was defiant. "I think you're all silly to believe such stories. There's no more harm in that old house than there is in a chicken coop."

"But Cordelia, old Bates says—"

"Oh, don't tell me what old Bates says! I wouldn't believe that old reprobate on a stack of bibles. He's always telling the most awful whoppers, and he tells them so often that he thinks they are true himself. Why, you've all heard his story about the catfish that was so big that they had to use a calf for bait! He's the worst liar in the county!"

The object of Cordelia's outburst of skepticism was a group of young people who were sitting around the fireplace in the Davis country house enjoying the heat of the flames; for though it was early October there was a chill in the air that made the crackling logs very comfortable.

The talk had drifted from old and bridge to ouija boards and haunted houses and some one had mentioned the deserted house up the road, stating that it was haunted, and adducing the evidence of old Bates, the peripatetic gardener of the Davis menage, as evidence in support.

A weird tale of moving lights and hollow groans had caused the company to sit a little closer around the fire—all except Cordelia. She shouted her derision at the idea, and overrode the objections of the company as she usually overrode anything that opposed itself to her sweet will.

"Why," she finished, as a sort of crusher to trample all opposition. "I wouldn't be afraid to spend the night in that old place any time. I'm not
